Urgent Notice:

To : Service providers and businesses
From : Phokwane Local Municipality
Date : 07 January 2021

Phokwane Local Municipality warns all its service providers that there is a fraudulent domain email registered as khoboane@phokwane.gov.za that is being used to scam business people or attempt to lure them into making business with "Phokwane" which in this case are the scammers.

The emails are formatted to look as if they come from Phokwane municipality, the content thereof requests the receiver to contact the CFO regarding supply and delivery of materials.

Therefore Phokwane Local Municipality would like to distance itself from such criminal activities. We further advise that where possible criminal cases must be opened against the scammers, if you receive such emails, please do not respond to them but to contact the procurement section of the Municipality for confirmation on 053 474 9700.

NB: The scammers might use other accounts not mentioned in this communique
